

After hailed by ABC, Georgian National TV, and Amarillo Globe News, Misael Elahrens Tambuwun branches out his career as a composer, educator, pianist, and sound engineer with both national and international recognition, including Visiting Professor and Residency at Baralli Conservatoire in Lucca International Festival (Italy), Georgian Symphony Composer Institute (Former Soviet Georgia Republic), SAE Middlesex University (UK), and Oregon Bach Festival (USA).

Since successfully praised by St. Petersburg Conservatoire, Prof. Alexei Sokolov, he has been becoming a multiple awards and fellowships recipient, including Fullbright International Education from Texas Legislature, honorary member of Music Teachers National Association, Full Fellowships from Imani Winds (GRAMMY) to collaborate with members of New York Philharmonic, MET Opera, and The Juilliard Faculty, JMC Australia Piano Scholarships, and Phi Mu Alpha Non Sinfonia Scholarships, and many more.

Besides fulfilling the invitation from The United Nations in Yogyakarta, Indonesia and US Ambassador, Robert Blake, Misael had been trained within the world-renown institutions, such as Eastman School of Music, Tbilisi Conservatoire, Mahidol University College of Music, SAE Institute - Middlesex University and West Texas A&M University School of Music.